

What is Preview Day?

Preview day is a chance for future students, transfers, high school juniors and seniors, to learn more about what the college has to offer. You'll also be able to meet with academic advisors, professors from your program of interest, as well as staff. You'll learn about all of their world-class academic programs and fantastic student support services. Below are some local and state colleges and universities' preview dates (some only have registered tours):

WEBSITES

1. The very first task to do is fill out an application at ApplyTexas.org; make an account because most of the colleges use this application to apply to a college.
2. Fill out a profile on Fastweb.com which is a company who reviews your profile and finds scholarships tailored to your interests and abilities. Another avenue for more scholarships!
3. Texas State University in San Marcos has many scholarships if you get in your application and FAFSA in on time. The higher your ACT/SAT score, the better. Plus they have competitive scholarships to which you can start applying.
4. For those who have free or reduced lunch, UT at Austin has a program that can offer up to $5000 per year for 4 years. To qualify, submit application to the school and the FAFSA by Dec. 1, for consideration.

5. All students are welcome to the Black College Expo at Houston on October 28th, from 10:00AM to 3PM and then a show from 3 to 5 PM. Bring your instrument and transcript as well as your ACT/SAT scores. There are band auditions, seminars/workshops, a dance off, internships/job fair, cash prizes, scholarships. Around 50 Universities will be there for you to look into. For more info, see Ms. Dauster.
