*Senior Counselor Virtual Office Coming Soon
September 30, 2020*

Hey y’all! I am excited to announce the Senior Counselor’s Virtual Office. I will be debuting and showing you guys around in English IV on September 30, 2020. The virtual Office will have tons of information for your senior year. Here are a few highlights: ACT/SAT information, Links to Colleges, Beach Escape, and SO MUCH MORE! Use the class code above to join today!

Also, I’ve loaded a College, Career, and Military Readiness Google form in the Virtual Office, that is due by September 15, 2020. In this form I am asking for basic information about your future, post-secondary plans. I will be prioritizing my senior visits by the information you share on the form.

NCAA – College Bound Athletics University Level

In an effort to provide clarity to students and parents making decision regarding the 2020-2021 academic year, the NCAA Eligibility Center is providing additional guidance regarding distance, e-learning or hybrid options made available by schools with NCAA-approved core courses.

The 2020-2021 Guide for the College-Bound Student Athlete is available for download. The guide is designed to assist student-athletes and families with understanding of the initial eligibility process. You can find the guide at www.NCAA.org

College Admission Section

University of Texas at Austin

The University of Texas at Austin has highly competitive admissions. Here is a start to all the information you need. However, if you are interested in attending UT-Austin, you need to contact me immediately to ensure you are making all the deadlines!

- Priority Admission Deadline – October 15, 2020 (This means your entire admission packet is due by October 15th.)
- The Class of 2021, that will enter UT-Austin in the Fall of 2021 is Test Optional (this class only).
- The short answer application question has been modified to have you share special circumstance related to COVID-19.
- Limited Campus Tours will resume from September 8 – November 24th.
- Top 6% of the graduating class of GHS 2021 will receive auto admission as long as all deadlines and the full admission packet is complete.
- Your East Texas representative is Elijah Burwell, contact him at 903—330-3467 or Elijah.burwell@austing.utexas.edu

Texas A&M University – College Station

Texas A&M University at College Station has highly competitive admissions. Here is a start to all the information you need. However, if you are interested in attending TAMU-CStat, you need to contact me immediately to ensure you are making all the deadlines!

- Priority Admission Deadline – October 15, 2020 (This means your entire admission packet is due by October 15th.)
- The Class of 2021, that will enter TAMU-CStat in the Fall of 2021 is Test Optional.
- There is a new short answer application question to have you share special circumstance related to COVID-19.
- TAMU no longer has Academic Admit – admissions are relying on Holistic Review Process. This means the competitive process stakes are higher and your admissions packet is vital. Non-Academic data will be very important to admissions.
- Top 10% of the graduating class of GHS 2021 will receive auto admission as long as all deadlines and the full admission packet is complete.
- Your East Texas representative is Derek Nido, contact him at 817-375-0960 or dnido@tamu.edu

University of Texas at Tyler

The University of Texas at Tyler is a great place, close to home with national recognized degree programs. Here is a start to all the information you need.
